STRONG MOTION RECORDINGS

Processed strong-motion records from the GNS network can be downloaded from the GeoNet webpage www.geonet.org.nz. Proceed via "Data centre" and "Strong motion data" to ftp.geonet.org.nz/strong/processed. The data includes the following

- raw files from digital instruments,
- unfiltered acceleration time-histories
- filtered time-histories for acceleration, velocity and displacement, and
- acceleration, velocity and displacement response spectra.

All are in ASCII (text) format and are accompanied by plots in postscript format. The recording period covered is from 1966 to present, but be aware that earthquake parameters in records from the most recent 12-month period are not final and may be changed in the future.

Records from the period 1966 to 1999 are also available from the COSMOS site (www.cosmos-eq.org).

For further information about the data, bulk supply of records, or to provide feedback, contact Jim Cousins at j.cousins@gns.cri.nz.
