

NZSEE Fellow Nomination Form 2027

Nominations must reach the Executive Officer (exec@nzsee.org.nz) on or before Friday, 13 November 2026 at 12pm.

In accordance with the Constitution & Rules of The New Zealand Society for Earthquake Engineering Incorporated, the NZSEE Management Committee shall annually publish a call for nominations for Fellows.

Clause 3.6 states:

Fellow: The Management Committee may elect as a Fellow of the Society any person, whether resident in New Zealand or otherwise who, in the Committee's estimation, fulfils all the following requirements:

1. the nominee must have been an Ordinary Member of the Society for at least five years immediately prior to nomination; and
2. the nominee must be highly respected in some aspects of the fields of earthquake engineering, earthquake phenomena or the effects of earthquakes; and
3. the nominee must have performed exceptional service to the Society as demonstrated by:
 - a. work on the Management Committee; and/or
 - b. work on one or more of the Society's Bulletins; and/or
 - c. publication in the Society's Bulletin; and/or
 - d. other special contribution which benefits the Society.

Clause 4.6 states:

Prospective Fellows shall be nominated by three current financial members of the Society, who shall submit with their nomination a brief statement supporting the nominee's case for election.

In the event of an initially unsuccessful nomination, the nomination shall stand for three years subsequent to nomination and if not by then successful, shall lapse.

Re-nomination of an unsuccessful candidate shall not be accepted for the three years subsequent to failure of a previous nomination.

NOTE: Normally not more than five percent of the Society's membership shall be Fellows at any one time. The Management Committee shall annually publish a call for nominations and the closing date for nominations.

Submissions are to be made to the Executive Officer by email at exec@nzsee.org.nz on or before Friday, 13 November 2026 at 12pm.

The submitted nomination will be considered by the Management Committee in their assessment for the election of NZSEE Fellows. The Management Committee's selection of any member for a Fellowship will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
